

PROF. V. K. NANGIA

Dr. Vinay Kumar Nangia, a distinguished alumnus of Banaras Hindu University has 42 years of managerial experience, including at senior and top levels in India and overseas, in banking, industry and education.

He has multi-functional expertise in Banking, Finance, General Management, Education and Institution Building. This includes experience of raising and deploying financial resources in India and overseas, setting up of new ventures in India and a new industrial project overseas. Banking experience includes exposure in commercial banking, merchant banking, investment banking, trade finance, project finance and training. Experience in education includes active participation in formulation and setting up MBA and MCA programmes in IIT Roorkee.

He has widely travelled across all the five continents for business, training, pleasure and cultural familiarisation. He has worked in rural, semi urban and metropolitan areas in government, public and private sectors during his career including having worked in three countries.

Amongst others, he has held the position of Head of the Department in IIT Roorkee thrice, Managing Director and CEO of an investment and finance company in Mumbai, Senior Vice President at Essar group in Mumbai, Group Director of a large business and industrial house at Lagos, Nigeria and an international banker at Singapore.

He was Principal Investigator of a Rs. 5 crore project "National Competitiveness in Knowledge Economy", awarded by the Ministry of Communications and Information Technology, Government of India. During 2006-2011, he was Government of India Chair Professor in Knowledge Economy.

Professor Nangia is member on various bodies and boards of several academic and other institutions. To name a few, he has been a member of the governing council of DOEACC, and a senior expert with International Telecommunication Union, Switzerland, a United Nations Agency, working on international consultancy projects, the last being in Sri Lanka. He is an invited member of the Expert Group on Knowledge Management of Asian Productivity Organisation, Tokyo and he is a Representative on the Knowledge Management Panel and Corporate Governance Panel of the Bureau of Indian Standards. He has been Government of India nominee on the Council of Management of All India Management Association. He has been nominated by Government of India in the sectoral Innovation Council of MSME, an initiative of Prime Minister of India. Recently he has been invited as Advisory Council Member of GIZ of Government of Germany & Ministry of MSME Government of India Co-operation Project "Innovation Promotion in MSME" for 2015-17.

He has to his credit large number of articles published in refereed journals, national and international. Five scholars under his guidance have completed their doctoral research and have been awarded Ph.D. He has authored the books "Masters Speak: Management Education in India" published by Bloomsbury India in 2014 and "driven by information technology Smart Banking – An Introduction" in 2016.

He has been honoured with Life Time Achievement in Business Education Award (2015) Shiksha Ratan Puruskar (2014) and Dewang Mehta Business School Award for being "Best Professor in General Management" (2013).